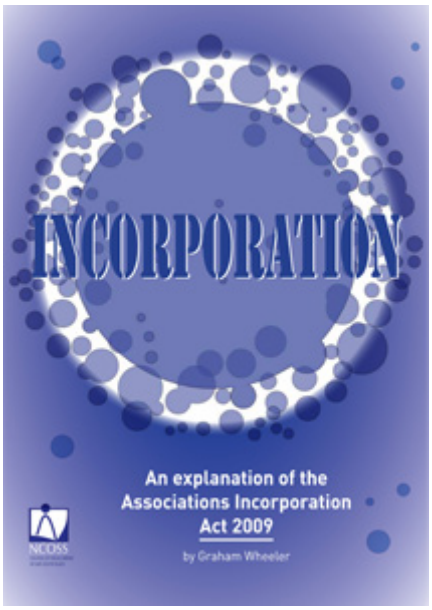
Incorporation: An explanation of the Associations Incorporation Act 2009



(Fully revised 7th edition, 2012)
Incorporation is designed to help community groups that wish to understand more about the Associations Incorporation Act 2009. This Act was designed to provide community groups with a simple and inexpensive form of incorporation. Although incorporation is not compulsory, it is an option which community groups should know about. The book is intended to be of assistance to those who wish to make an informed decision on whether or not to incorporate, and to successfully register and run an incorporated association. The book also contains information aimed at helping people who were familiar with the old Act and want to know what has changed with the introduction of the new Act. The publication of this book was assisted by a grant from NSW Fair Trading.

A Brief History of NCOSS (1935-2010)

2010 marks the 75th Anniversary of the foundation of the Council of Social Service of NSW (NCOSS). This A5 booklet (B&W; 28pp) is a brief history of the organisation collecting together a series of short articles looking back at those previous years, drawing on information from documents, publications and other historical sources. Not so much a comprehensive historical document, more of an overview which samples some of the numerous significant moments over the past three quarters of a century since NCOSS was founded - achievements, losses, frustrations, the people and some trivia.
