

NCOSS Regional Visits in Dareton, Balranald and Hay 1-3 July 2008

The Council of Social Service of NSW (NCOSS) is the peak non government body for the social and community services sector in NSW. NCOSS works on behalf of disadvantaged people and communities towards achieving social justice in NSW.

Each year, NCOSS visits different rural and regional locations across NSW to identify critical social policy and human services issues. The aim of the NCOSS Regional Visits is to:

- Inform NCOSS of issues in regional, rural and remote areas
- Inform NGOs of the work that NCOSS does
- Build relationships and partnerships
- Feed into work on social inclusion and the NSW State Plan
- Feed into NCOSS policy and sector development work including submissions to government

We'd love to meet you, so come along, have a cup of tea and some lunch, and help identify priority issues for your community

Dareton 1 July 2008 10am-2pm General community consultation Community Health Aboriginal Corporation 51 Sturt Place Dareton	Balranald 2 July 2008 10am-12.30pm Consultation for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and organisations Aboriginal Medical Service Market Street Balranald	Hay 3 July 2008 10am-2pm General community consultation Hay Shire Council Chambers 134 Lachlan Street Hay
Morning tea and lunch provided

Our meetings will be facilitated by Samantha Edmonds, NCOSS Deputy Director, Policy and Communications, Christine Regan, NCOSS Senior Policy Officer and Wendy Hall, NCOSS Policy Coordination Officer

For more information and to RSVP, please contact Wendy Hall at NCOSS, 66 Albion Street, Surry Hills, 2010, on email wendy@ncoss.org.au or phone 02 9211 2599, ext 118. Please RSVP by 25 June 2008.