

The Buck Stops with the Board Conference Papers

*NCOSS Sector Development Conference *3 May 2012

Management Committees as the Employer

This conference focused on the major role of Boards as the employer, from a range of perspectives, and in the context of the Equal Pay Decision. The program will include speakers on the following topics:

- *Successful Boards in 2012.
- *The Legal Responsibilities of Boards as Employers.
- *The Equal Pay Decision in Queensland-issues for Boards, the QCOSS Experience.
- *The Equal Pay Decision and the needs of small Regional Boards.

In the afternoon there was a panel of 'seasoned experts' to explore the role of Boards in leading organisational change.

Video and audio proceedings will be available later in the month.

Conference Papers

*Key Note Address

Successful Boards in 2012

Professor Myles McGregor-Lowndes

Director, Australian Centre for Philanthropy and Non-Profit Studies, QUT

\*The Legal Responsibilities of Boards as Employers

Caroline Ryan

Industrial Relations Adviser, Jobs Australia

\*The Equal Pay Decision in Queensland Issues for Boards - the QCOSS Experience

Mark Henley

CEO, QCOSS

\*Major Issues for Regional Boards Workforce Development Project Findings

John Carrigan

Senior Project Officer, NCOSS

The NCOSS Management support Unit is funded by the NSW Ministry of Health, and Ageing, Disability and Home Care (ADHC)