Extension of deadline for University Scholarships for Community Organisations

The NSW Government is offering five scholarships in the Graduate Diploma in Public Administration, each to the value of approximately $27,000, as part of an initiative to support workforce development in the community sector.

The Diploma is an 18-month course offered by the Graduate School of Government at the University of Sydney. It encompasses important themes of study relevant to contemporary organisations including leadership and strategic administration, Commonwealth/State/Local government relations and whole of government policy development and program implementation.

Your assistance in circulating this information within your organisation or to other organisations in the community sector would be appreciated. The application deadline has been extended and applications should be returned to the NSW Public Service Commission by 31 August 2012.
