

Join NCOSS to contribute to the vital work in advocating for a more equitable, thriving and inclusive society

Are you a non-government, not-for-profit organisation based in NSW which delivers human services and/or is involved in community development, policy or advocacy?

NCOSS Organisational Members range from small frontline services operating in metropolitan, regional, rural and remote parts of NSW, through to state-wide providers and peak bodies. We know that the strength of the sector lies in its diversity. Join NCOSS for the opportunity to connect and collaborate to influence change, contribute to policy positions, and access exclusive training, resources, events and networking opportunities.
