[compare section 201A]

28.1 Subject to rule 28.2, the number of the directors must be not less than 3 nor more than 11.¹

28.2 The Company in general meeting may by resolution increase or reduce the number of directors referred to in rule 28.1 but the number may not be reduced below 3.

28.3 The directors will comprise:
(1) Elected Directors; and
(2) up to 8 Board Appointed Directors.

29. Directors’ qualifications

(1) is an ordinary member of the Company or is the nominated representative of a corporate ordinary member;

(3) is not precluded from being a director under the Act or a responsible entity under the ACNC Act.

29.2 In addition, subject to rule 38, at least 1 director must be an Aboriginal and Torres elected to the board under the following provisions of this constitution, then the directors for the time being must appoint an appropriately qualified person to the board to ensure that there is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Person on the board at all times even if the effect of such appointment is to increase the number of the board members to 13. Any such appointment to the board will be deemed as an appointment to fill a casual vacancy to the intent that the provisions of rule 40 will apply to that director.

29.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the requirements of rule 28.2 will have been met if an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Person is a member of the board, whether in the capacity of an office bearer or otherwise.

30. Appointment of Board Appointed Directors

30.1 Subject to:

(1) the number of directors who have been elected by the members (having regard to rule 28); and

(2) rule 30.3;

the directors may appoint up to 8 people qualified to be a director.

30.2 Any person appointed pursuant to this rule will be deemed to have been appointed to fill a casual vacancy under rule 40.1 (Board Appointed Directors).

30.3 Despite rule 29.1(1), a Board Appointed Director need not be an ordinary member of the Company nor a nominated representative of a corporate ordinary member.

31. Election of Elected Directors

[compare section 201E and replaceable rule 201G]

31.1 At each annual general meeting of the Company 1/3 of the Elected Directors for the time being or, if their number is not 3 or a multiple of 3, then the number nearest to but not exceeding 1/3, retire from office but no Elected Director may retain office for more than 3 years without submitting himself or herself for re-election even though the submission results in more than 1/3 of the directors retiring from office.

31.2 The Elected Director or Elected Directors to retire at an annual general meeting are those who have been longest in office since their election. For the purposes of determining the Elected Director or Elected Directors to retire, regard must be had to the length of prior service given by each Elected Director in their capacity as a Elected Director of the Company prior to the adoption of this constitution.

31.3 As between or among 2 or more Elected Directors who became directors on the same day, the Elected Director or Elected Directors to retire are determined by lot unless they otherwise agree between or among themselves.

31.4 A retiring Elected Director is eligible for re-election without the necessity of giving any previous notice of their intention to submit himself or herself for re-election.

31.5 Unless it is decided at an annual general meeting to reduce the number of directors in office, the Company at any annual general meeting at which any Elected Director retires may fill the vacated office by re-electing the retiring Elected Director or electing some other qualified person.
31.6 If at the annual general meeting the vacated office is not filled, the retiring Elected Director, if willing and not disqualified, must be treated as re-elected unless the board decide to reduce the number of directors in office or a resolution for the re-election of that Elected Director is put and lost.

31.7 Each of the Elected Directors must be appointed by a separate resolution unless:

(1) the members present have first passed a resolution that the appointments may be voted on together; and

(2) no votes were cast against that resolution.

32. Maximum term

32.1 A director who has held office for a continuous period of 9 years or more may only be re-appointed or re-elected by a special resolution of members.

33. Nomination for election

33.1 Each candidate for election as an Elected Director must:

(1) be proposed by an ordinary member or the nominated representative of an ordinary corporate member; and

(2) be seconded by another ordinary member or the nominated representative of another ordinary corporate member;

both of which members must be current financial members of the Company at the time of nomination.

33.2 No ordinary member or nominated representative of an ordinary member may propose more than 1 person as a candidate but may second more than 1 nomination.

33.3 A nomination of a candidate for election must:

(1) be in writing;

(2) be signed by the candidate; and

(3) be signed by the proposer and seconder.

33.4 A nomination of a candidate for election must be received at the registered office of the Company not later than 5pm on the day which is 30 days prior to the annual general meeting at which the candidate seeks election.

33.5 A list of the candidates’ names in alphabetical order together with the proposers’ and seconders’ names must be sent to members with the notice of the annual general meeting.
34. Election procedure – directors

34.1 If the number of candidates for election as Elected Directors is equal to or less than the number of vacancies on the board, the chair of the annual general meeting must declare those candidates to be duly elected as directors.

34.2 If the number of candidates for election as Elected Directors is greater than the number of vacancies on the board, a ballot must be held for the election of the candidates by way of Direct Vote.

34.3 If a ballot is required, the notice of the annual general meeting required to be given under rule 86 must list the names of the candidates for election in alphabetical order.

34.4 At each annual general meeting, the election of the Elected Directors will occur by Direct Vote in the manner determined by the directors.

34.5 The Direct Votes must be received by the secretary at least 7 days before the annual general meeting.

34.6 The candidates receiving the greatest number of votes cast in their favour must be declared by the chair of the meeting to be elected as directors.

34.7 If an equality of votes would otherwise prevent the successful candidate for a vacancy from being determined, the chair, prior to the declaration of the result of the ballot, in addition to their deliberative vote (if any) is entitled to a casting vote, except that if the chair:

   (1) does not exercise a casting vote; or

   (2) is one of the candidates who received the same number of votes;

then the names of the candidates who received the same number of votes must be put to a further ballot immediately.

34.8 There is not a vacancy for the purpose of this rule 34 (or rules 40 or 41) because the number of directors is less than the maximum allowed under rule 28.1. There is a vacancy only if the number of directors is less than the number elected at the previous annual general meeting (adjusted for any increase under rule 40.1).

35. Time appointment or retirement takes effect

38. Eligibility and nomination

38.1 Only directors may be office bearers. Any director is eligible for election to any office bearer position.

38.2 Each director standing for election as an office bearer must be proposed by another director.

38.3 If a director stands for election for more than 1 position as an office bearer separate nominations must be received in respect of each position.

38.4 A nomination may be:

(1) in writing, received by the secretary not less than 24 hours prior to the board meeting at which the election is to take place and signed by the candidate and the proposer; or

(2) made orally at the meeting, provided that the candidate is present and consents to the nomination.

39. Election procedure – office bearers

39.1 The election of the office bearers is held in the order in which the positions are listed in rule 36.1.

39.2 If there is only 1 candidate for election to any office bearer position that person is declared elected to that position.

39.3 If there is more than 1 candidate for election to any office bearer position a ballot must be held among the candidates. The candidate receiving the greatest number of votes cast in their favour is declared elected to that position.

39.4 In the case of an equality of votes in respect of any position a further ballot must be held immediately but if there is still an equality of votes the successful candidate must be determined by lot.

39.5 If a director is elected to a position as office bearer, then their nomination, if any, for any other position must be treated as withdrawn before the election is held in respect of the other position or positions.

39.6 Subject to this rule 39 a ballot is conducted in the manner the directors determine.

100.2 If a proxy is only for a single meeting it may be used at any postponement or adjournment of that meeting, unless the proxy states otherwise.

100.3 A proxy's authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting is suspended while the member is present at the meeting.

100.4 A proxy may be revoked at any time by notice in writing to the Company.

101. When proxy form must be sent to all members
[section 249Z]

102.7 A later appointment revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.

103. Form of proxy sent out by Company
